

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

The MADISON COUNTY GENEALOGICAL & HISTORICAL SOCIETY is an active non-profit organization which was formed in 1981, with the purposes of promoting interest in, collecting and preserving the history of Madison County, Arkansas, and its people. The Society also serves our community through our free library and research facility and by the publication of our quarterly, "The Madison County Musings".

The office and FREE library is located in the old Community Center at 620 West Gaskill Street (Highway 412 West). Our volunteer staff will be glad to assist you in research of our materials on Madison County history, genealogical information, family history books and various other records. During the months of March thru October, the library is open Monday thru Friday, 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. During November, December, January and February the library is open only on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, also from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. We gladly accept donations of copies of your family history to add to our library.

The "MADISON COUNTY MUSINGS" is our quarterly magazine which is published by the Society four times a year, with each issue containing about 55 pages of Madison County history and genealogical data, including photos and index. Our membership year runs from January 1st to December 31st. Each member has free query privileges and we welcome submission of articles pertaining to Madison County history for consideration for publication in The Musings. Each member receives four issues per year of The Musings, which are mailed in April, June, September and November. If we are not notified of your CHANGE OF ADDRESS, you will be charged $5.00 for each replacement issue of The Musings.

Membership dues are $15.00 per year.
The Spring issue of The Musings is mailed about April 15th each year
